And after years and years and billions of dollars, we finally decide, hey, that is not a good idea. I think there were a number of people along the way who said, way earlier than that, that that was not a good idea, that we shouldnt be doing that. How do we address that problem so we dont come to the point where we have these sunk costs of billions of dollars and aborting a program where parts are made, partners are made in many, many districts across the country so it gets wide congressional sup-port And the third problem is there is always some new technology we can add. I have been here 18 years now. We never have finished a program on time and on budget. And we are partly responsible for that, because we keep saying, gee, couldnt it be a little better Let us add this...
