*****.Casseroles are the perfect idea for hard working families on a budget. They are quick, easy, inexpensive and delicious! They can be made ahead of time and then frozen or reheated. They are perfect for pot lucks, parties, work team events, family reunions, barbecues, holidays and picnics! Make a couple on the weekends and then freeze and reheat during the week! Put them in plastic carry along containers to take to work and reheat in the microwave.I have put together this list of one dish casserole recipes because I know how hard it is to feed a large family economically and affordably while serving dishes that everyone will love. These recipes are not only tasty but they are simple and cheap. So whether you are broke, on a budget, drowning in credit card debt, paying off an ex-wife, chasing that baby daddy for child support, paying off those student loans, unemployed, underemployed, feeding a large family, still hurting from the housing market crash or debt free and independently wealthy and you just like good down-home simple...
