At the time of presentation they created a profound impression throughout the country; The Inter Ocean, with characteristic enterprise, publishing: them verbatim from day to day throughout the conference. In the year 1878, the first general American Bible and Prophetic Conference was held in New York City. The addresses delivered on our Lord s personal and premillennial return to this earth were then eagerly heard by the hundreds of ministers, and thousands of intelligent Christian people who were then and there assembled. The New York Tribune published an extra of 50,000 copies, giving in full these essays, which, afterwards, were edited carefully by Dr. Nathaniel West, and published by F. H. Revell, Chicago, in one large volume entitled Pre-Millennial Essays. Such was the influence of the movement that for more than two years following the Conference important and valuable discussions on prophetic themes occupied the pages of not a few of our religious newspapers, journals, and magazines, and a new impetus for Bible study was given to multitudes whose attention had so long been turned away from the great and almost entirely neglected fields of divine prophecy. The following Resolutions passed by that Conference in its closing session express in brief, the...
