Excerpt: . this year, l50,000l.: to which add services of the year, 5, l33,000l.: total of this year s expenditure at present demanded, 16,937,000l. But as there were many matters omitted, as paying for finishing Somerset House and Carleton House, he was confident that he understated the year s expenditure when he put it at seventeen millions. Here, then, the matter was brought to a narrow compass, the utmost income the minister pretended to reckon on, was l5,723,000l., the difference, therefore, amounting to nearly 1,300,000l. was the actual deficiency between our income and ex enditure.-Here he made his stand; if t e right hon. gentleman s principle was right, that the truth ought to be nown, here was a statement which admitted of no possible dispute; for every figure of it was taken from accounts upon the table. If it was answered, that we were not yet arrived at the peace establishment, and that the expenditure would be greatly reduced, to that he would say nothing, but would impress on the minds of the committee, the indispensable duty of looking to the performance of these promises; otherwise, after all the pleasing prospects which were offered to us, and the elo uent congratulations of that day, the un ortunate fact would be, that we were a government expending considerably more than a million beyond our income. Mr. Sheridan next mentioned the resource of the lottery, and regretted that it should have been so trium hantly an-...
