Excerpt from The Story of Agraysquirrel: With 100 Drawings These are the ideas that I have aimed to set forth in this tale. 1st. That although an animal is much helped by its mother's teaching, it owes still more to the racial teaching, which is instinct, and can make a success of life without its mother's guidance, if only it can live through the dangerous time of infancy and early life. 2d. Animals often are tempted into immorality - by which I mean, any habit or practice that would in its final working, tend to destroy the race. Nature has rigorous ways of dealing with such.
