Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Notes on Dr. Scott's Bible and Politics These pages are given to the public under the following circumstances: In the course of my regular pulpit ministrations, I delivered four evening lectures on the propriety and importance of placing the Bible in the Common Schools of California. These lectures were published first in the Pacific, and afterwards in pamphlet form. The reasons assigned by me for their delivery and publication were in these words: It may be asked, why discuss the matter at all? We do it for two reasons. First, to direct the attention of the community to it. It is a lamentable truth that, with here and there an exception, California has no Bible in her Public Schools; she invokes not the name of God in her legislative halls, and her Sabbath law has been wrested from her by her Supreme Court. This state of things exists not, as some allege, because the majority of the citizens are infidel or papist, but because the public mind is not aroused to the subject. Our...
