Arcadia Publishing, 2009. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Title: New Book! Salt Lake City: 1890-1930 (Images of America) Author: Staff Writer Publisher: Utah Department of Community & Culture Date: 2009 Between 1890 and 1930, Salt Lake City experienced some of the most rapid and profound changes of any city in U.S. history. In its pioneer period, from the beginning of white settlement in 1847 to about 1890, the city struggled against outside pressures to maintain its identity as a self-sufficient Mormon utopian community, with its theocratic government, agricultural economy, and polygamous society. But by the turn of the 20th century, Mormonism had largely abandoned those features, and Salt Lake City was becoming like most other American cities as it embraced capitalism, the evolution of transportation and industry, ethnic and cultural diversity, womens rights, and modern entertainment. Melissa Ferguson, curator of manuscripts at the Utah State Historical Society and a doctoral student at the University of Utah, has written this book in collaboration with Gary Topping, professor of history at Salt Lake Community College. The project is a partnership with the Utah State Historical Society and consists mostly of images drawn from the Harry Shipler Photograph Collection held at that institution. Available online after May 18th, and in stores on May 25th or you can visit Arcadia Publishing website to purchase a copy of the book. Two companion publications featuring the author's favorite pics from the book will be available May 25th: Postcards of America and Calendars of American--a SLC calendar for 2010.
