Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The New Era: A Dramatic Poem The revolutionary movement of thirty years ago is assumed, not without justification from the facts of history, to have been the first decisive effort of the European nations to initiate this great reform. The effort failed in consequence of the blindness and apathy of the governments, and that failure was marked by the fall of Mazzini in Rome, and the triumph of Louis Napoleon in Paris. We are now reaping in the whirlwind the bitter fruits of the seeds that were then sown upon the wind, and the real problem confronting the statesmen of our own day is to retrieve the defeat of that frustrate revolution, to escape from the epoch of retrogression and violence into which we then entered, and inaugurate even at this late day the era of peace and brother hood upon which the welfare of the future depends.
