Excerpt: . . . 11 fundamentally sour relations between the United States and China. But through careful diplomacy, both sides respecting one another's point of view, trying to find a solution, we found a solution. We got our crew home safely, we eventually got our plane home. It also set up conditions that allowed me to go to China later that summer for successful meetings that set the stage for President Bush to visit Shanghai for the APEC summit last fall. He had good meetings with President Jiang Zemin, and we have discovered in recent months that the Chinese are anxious to move forward with us on a positive agenda. We have emphasized that there are shared interests that we have with China, and they are global and regionally shared interests, such as China's access to the WTO, which has now occurred...
