Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Address at the 99th Anniversary It is my high privilege, this evening, gentlemen, to welcome you to the returned anniversary of the State Medical Society of New Jersey. Ninety-nine years of its existence are now joined to the memories of the past, and the fresh, dewy dawn of its hundredth natal morn is already casting its twilight shadows upon us. Venerable with the acquirements of age, yet vigorous with the energy of youth, it again welcomes us to the council-board of professional re-union, and bids us exchange the kindred sympathies of a mutual art. We come together to review the medical history of the year, to maintain the true courtesy of our calling, to pay deference to the mementoes of the past, to measure the claims and progress of our science, to join the hands of a genial friendship, and to bid each other God-speed in all that relates to the true advancement of the noble profession to which are devoted the stirring energies of our manhood. But a temporary sadness comes over my heart as I proceed to the duty which devolves upon me. I can not forget that since last we met, from among the honored members of this Society, one has fallen, who, each returning year, was wont to greet us here, with all the warmth of personal and professional attachment. You have not forgotten his last utterance in our midst. It was a plea in behalf of the interests of unfortunate humanity; in which the arguments, derived from elaborate investigation, were presented with the earnest voice and the thrilling enthusiasm of a living sympathy. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds...
