Excerpt: .sheath, and the box for the quadrans, or piece of money which was paid by each visitor. It is probable that the sword belonged to the balneator or keeper of the Thermae. The door (o) which opens on the street where the temple of Fortune is situated, leads also into the same vestibule. By means of a corridor, we proceed through the passage (2) into the apodyterium, or undressing-room (6), which is also accessible by the corridor (a) from the street now called the Street of the Arch. In this corridor alone were found upwards of five hundred lamps, and upwards of a thousand were discovered in various parts pf the baths during the excavations, Of these the best were selected, and the workmen were ordered to destroy the remainder. The greater number were of terra-cotta, some had an impression of the graces on...
