Not illustrated. 1911 Excerpt: .willing to live with her eyes on the ground. But they are breathing the air of America, and ever and anon the newspaper world announces, Beet Workers Have Struck. Demanding More Wages. Never less hours, -always more money. In-fact, --many have learned to strike in the middle of the day, and appear, a solid army, which calmly marches away if demands are not heeded. Dedicated four churches. Only three words for the record that is seen. What of the unseen? At the first one we caught the enthusiasm of the co-operation of the frontier. A church in North Dakota sent over its choir in an automobile--a distance quite staggering even to hear about. Another church many, many miles down the line expressed its pulpit (prepaid) for the day. Someone had carefully painted all the lard pails a deep, dark red, and they served as jardinieres for...
