Prespacetime Journal (PSTJ, <http://www.prespacetime.com>) is a publication in which physicists, mathematicians and other learned scholars publish their research results and express their views on the origin, nature and mechanism of spacetime and its possible connection to a prespacetime. It is also a journal where all learned scholars can present their models and experimental results on elemental particles, fundamental forces including gravity and related topics. This is PSTJ Volume 2 Issue 1 first published in January 2011. It is entitled The Rise of Collaborative Spirit in Science and the Fall of the Iron Curtain and contains following articles: (1) The Rise of Collaborative Spirit in Science and the Fall of the Iron Curtain; (2) Black Hole Complementarity as a Condition on Pre and Post Selected String States; (3) Plane Symmetric Universe with Wet Dark Fluid in General Relativity; (4) (xyz)Sqrt(3)-t-type Plane Wave Solutions of Weakened Field Equations in General Relativity; (5) LRS Bianchi Type-I Domain Walls in a Saez-Ballesteros Scalar-Tensor Theory of Gravitation; (6) Is Einstein still Misunderstood (7) Source-free Electromagnetisms Canonical Fields Reveal the Free-photon Schrodinger Equation; (8)...

Reviews

It is an awesome publication which i actually have ever read through. it had been written really properly and valuable. I found out this book from my i and dad recommended this pdf to discover.

-- Doyle Schmeler

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that i am sure that i will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
